

Self-Study Appendices

The following documents will be included with the self-study document. IR will supply forms and assist each department in obtaining the information necessary. Tables that are the responsibility of the department are so indicated.

Tables to be completed by the department (forms provided)

1. Program Goals and Assessment Plan
3. Number of faculty and number of courses compared to other institutions
5. List of mission skills and which courses (GGR and regular) meet those skills
8. Departmental learning outcomes by course
14. Faculty Service
15. Faculty Development
16. Faculty Scholarship
17. Adjunct Faculty
18. List of equipment owned/assigned to the department and how it is being utilized

Tables with data provided by IR

1. Majors and Graduates Reports
2. Faculty Load Reports
3. Budget Report

Additional material to help in program review:

1. ACI Mission Statement
2. Catalog copy of the program requirements and course listings and those of programs at comparator institutions (Lewis & Clark, Linfield, Reed, Whitman, Willamette, and Univ. of Puget Sound. Additional colleges can be considered after consulting with the PRC.)
3. Library report for the department – program specific holdings and usage.

Additional Support

IR will provide funds (amount depends on number of programs under review) for the expenses for reviewers
