Grant recipients will be required to provide documentation of the expense (e.g., receipt or other form of verification).

Should you be awarded this grant, it is important to note that pursuant to federal and state regulations, this award will be reported as taxable income for you. The College’s Business Office will withhold the appropriate amount of federal tax from the award as required under federal law. Please note that depending on your own personal tax bracket, you may also incur tax liability when filing your annual state taxes for the 2023 tax year.

One of the requirements in issuing this award for international students is that your Sprintax forms are up to date and that you have electronically signed the W8-BEN form. You can log in here to review, log in to Sprintax Calculus

Please submit this form back to Aisha Reed at: areed@collegeofidaho.edu for review and possible funding support through the Student Emergency Fund grant.
