

2020 WORK DAY SEMINARS

Boone Science Hall Room 103 Noon-1PM

January 4, – Don Zaroban “Fish Collection Quality Assurance – Progress Made in 2019”.

February 1– Bill Nance -“Archaeology of Middle America”

March 7 – Nate Carpenter - “Update on the Geochronology of Neogene Aquatic Biota of the Pacific Northwestern United States”

April 4 – Richard Salisbury - “Marine Biology :Recent Discoveries Related to Gastropods”

May 2– Kaitlin Maguire - “Field Work in Mongolia and Tanzania”

June 6 - Bill Clark—“ Biodiversity Survey in San Basilio, Baja Cal Sur. Mexico”

July 11 - Paul Castroville - “What Do Butterfly Caterpillar Eat?” Butterfly ID workshop to immediately follow.”
(July 12^t butterfly count)

August 1 -Howard Emry - “Pleistocene Deposits of the American Falls Formation, Southeastern Idaho.”

September 12 - Luc Leblanc - "The Real Missionaries"

October 3 - Eric Yensen — “Rototillers with Jaws: The Ecology and Natural History of Badgers”

November 7 — Kirk Halford — Deputy Preservation Officer/State Archaeologist
Bureau of Land Management

December 5 — Gipson Honors Students “Museum Specimens and the Meaning of Things”

ORMA J SMITH MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY

The College of Idaho, Boone Science Hall, Basement B-015
2112 Cleveland Blvd Caldwell, Idaho 83605

208-459-5507

Facebook: OJSmithMuseum Instagram: OJSNaturalHistory