

Art History Instructor-Part-time

The Art Department at the College of Idaho invites applications for the position of part-time instructor of art to teach a course in the spring of 2022.

The successful candidate should be able to teach either an ARH 200-level survey course in Renaissance to Modern Art, or our ARH-370 Seminar in Art History: Special Topics course. The special topics designation allows instructors to propose a course in their area of specialization. Topics that cover non-western art are preferred.

A doctorate in art history or visual studies or equivalent professional experience is required. Prior college teaching experience is also required.

Candidates must be authorized to work in the United States as of the expected hire date and throughout the date of the contract without sponsorship from The College of Idaho.

Send a cover letter, a CV, and contact information for three references to HR@collegeofidaho.edu with the subject line "Art History Instructor." Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.

With over 125 years of history, The College of Idaho is a regional and national leader in higher education. The College of Idaho is an inclusive community of exceptional learning that challenges the ambitious and forges pathways to success and purpose. To learn more about The College of Idaho, please visit www.collegeofidaho.edu

The College of Idaho is proud to be an equal opportunity employer. We are committed to attracting, retaining, and maximizing academic excellence through a diverse and inclusive workforce. Our Representation, Inclusion & Equity Statement