Art-Ways of Seeing Instructor- Part-time

The Art Department at the College of Idaho invites applications for the position of part-time instructor of art to teach one course in the fall of 2021 and one course in the spring of 2022 with the possibility for renewal thereafter.

The successful candidate will teach an introductory course in visual culture that focuses on contemporary art within the United States produced by minority cultures and subcultures. Some lecture topics may include Street Art, Lowbrow, Comic Book, Hip Hop/Rap, LGBTQ, and Chicano Art. Other course activities include simple creative projects that correspond to select lectures, and expose students to both 2D and 3D media. Applicants must be proficient in their knowledge of the subject matter.

A Masters degree in Visual Culture, Art History, or other relevant area of study, or equivalent professional experience is required. Prior experience in college teaching is also required.

Candidates must be authorized to work in the United States as of the expected hire date and throughout the date of the contract without sponsorship from The College of Idaho.

Send a cover letter, a CV, and contact information for three references to HR@collegeofidaho.edu with the subject line "Ways of Seeing Instructor." Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.
