

Posted 06/15/2021

Artist-in-Residence, Violin

The College of Idaho invites auditions for a violinist to serve as a full-time Artist-in-Residence and Langroise Fellow. The Langroise Fellows are supported by an endowment generously gifted by Gladys Langroise to benefit the public through music education and performance. This position includes membership in the Langroise String Trio and as Concertmaster in the Boise Philharmonic Orchestra.

The responsibilities for this position at the College of Idaho include teaching applied violin lessons, recruiting qualified students, performing in the College of Idaho Langroise Trio, and teaching classes as appropriate. Responsibilities to the Boise Philharmonic include 80 services. In addition to performance skills suitable for the Concertmaster position, candidates should have academic credentials or equivalent professional experience to teach at the college level. Candidate selection will be completed in coordination with the Boise Philharmonic Concertmaster auditions. Audition information and additional details about the Concertmaster position in the Boise Philharmonic can be found at <https://boisephil.org/auditions/>.

Candidates must be authorized to work in the United States as of the expected hire date and throughout the date of the contract without sponsorship from the College.

With over 125 years of history, The College of Idaho is a regional and national leader in higher education. The College of Idaho is an inclusive community of exceptional learning that challenges the ambitious and forges pathways to success and purpose.

The College of Idaho is proud to be an equal opportunity employer. We are committed to attracting, retaining, and maximizing academic excellence through a diverse and inclusive workforce. Our Representation, Inclusion & Equity Statement