

ASSISTANT/ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR: BUSINESS & ACCOUNTING DEPARTMENT

The College of Idaho invites applications for a tenure-track assistant or associate professor appointment in Business & Accounting in fall of 2020. The ideal candidate will have a strong passion for teaching within an integrated liberal arts framework. Our student-centered approach emphasizes the intersection of theory and practice and prepares graduates for productive careers. A doctorate from an accredited institution is required; ABD will be considered so long as the degree will be completed by the time of appointment. Preference will be given to candidates with college teaching experience; industry experience is highly desirable.

Areas of Need: The College currently offers majors in business administration, marketing & digital media, and accounting. We seek a generalist with experience in teaching and research/scholarship who can fill some of the following teaching areas, listed in order of departmental need: Principles of Economics (micro & macro), Introduction to Business, Financial Accounting, Managerial Accounting, Social Entrepreneurship, Principles of Management, Principles of Finance, Legal Issues and Marketing. In your application letter, please identify the teaching areas that pertain to your education, experiences and interests.

Responsibilities: This is a nine-month position, which will include flexibility in teaching undergraduate business courses. Typical course load is 3-1-3, (Fall, January term & Spring semester) or 21- 24 credits. Additional duties include academic advising, internship supervision, scholarship and service to the College and department. Professional development support for research, conference travel, and sabbatical leave are available.

Qualifications:

- Doctorate from accredited institution required, with an emphasis in business, economics, management, entrepreneurship, marketing, business education, or related field is preferred
- College teaching experience required; industry experience highly desirable
- Commitment to undergraduate teaching in a liberal arts setting
- Collegiality, flexibility, and interest sufficient to work closely in a small department
- Innovation and adaptability in using technology to achieve learning outcomes

Candidates must be authorized to work in the United States as of the expected hire date and throughout the date of the contract without sponsorship from The College of Idaho.
