

Communication Arts Instructor, Part-time

The College of Idaho invites applications for the position of part-time instructor of Communication Arts to teach one or two course(s) for the spring 2023 semester.

We seek a qualified candidate to teach our basic public speaking course, which focuses on bridging theory and practice in public advocacy. The successful candidate may also teach an introductory course in the foundations of communication that focuses on critical/cultural approaches and provides students with the metacognitive skills to be successful in college.

Qualifications: Candidates must possess a master's degree in communication or a closely related field and evidence of successful teaching. Candidates must be authorized to work in the United States as of the expected hire date and throughout the date of the contract without sponsorship from the College.

To apply: Please include (1) a cover letter addressing your interest and qualifications; (2) a curriculum vitae; (3) contact information for three references to HR@collegeofidaho.edu with subject Communication Instructor. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.

With over 130 years of history, the College of Idaho is an inclusive community of exceptional learning that challenges the ambitious and forges pathways to success and purpose. The College strives to improve access to higher education for underrepresented individuals and groups. Its efforts have been recognized with high rankings for social mobility by the Wall Street Journal and U.S. News & World Report. Almost 20% of the students are international students with over 90 countries represented and a third of the students identifying as first-generation students.

The College of Idaho is proud to be an equal opportunity employer. We are committed to attracting, retaining, and maximizing the performance of a diverse and inclusive workforce. The College does not discriminate on the basis of sex, race, color, age, religion, disability, national and ethnic origin, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity, or any other basis protected by law.