

Posted 03/06/2023

Health and Human Performance Instructor: Athletics Coaching

The College of Idaho invites applications for a part-time instructor to teach a number of courses related to athletics coaching and sport pedagogy over the upcoming 2023-2024 year. We seek candidates who share the College's commitment to creating an equitable and inclusive academic community through their teaching, mentoring, scholarly activity, and service.

The Health and Human Performance Department offers programs in Exercise Science, Human Performance, Health Promotion, and Coaching. The successful candidate will support the department's programs by teaching courses in team sports skills, coaching methods, and sports officiating. Additional consideration will be given to a candidate with experience teaching sport psychology or courses in human health and wellness.

Qualifications

A master's degree with demonstrated teaching history in higher education or a doctoral degree by the beginning of the fall 2023 term in any field related to exercise science is required. Experience in the practice of coaching in sport is expected. Professional doctorates such as doctorates of physical therapy or athletic training are welcome. Strength and conditioning certifications, personal training certifications are highly desirable, but not necessary.

Application instructions

Please submit application materials as a cover letter and CV. If considered for the position, the candidate will be asked for additional materials. Submit materials via email to HR@collegeofidaho.edu with subject "HHP Coaching Instructor."

Review of candidates will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.

The College

With over 130 years of history, the College of Idaho is an inclusive community of exceptional learning that challenges the ambitious and forges pathways to success and purpose. The College strives to improve access to higher education for underrepresented individuals and groups. Its efforts have been recognized with high rankings for social mobility by the Wall Street Journal and U.S. News & World Report. Almost 20% of the students are international students with over 90 countries represented and a third of the students identifying as first-generation students.

The College of Idaho is proud to be an equal opportunity employer. We are committed to attracting, retaining, and maximizing the performance of a diverse and inclusive workforce. The College does not discriminate on the basis of sex, race, color, age, religion, disability, national and ethnic origin, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity, or any other basis protected by law. Half-time positions are eligible for benefits and the College offers competitive benefits including tuition waiver for dependents, health insurance, retirement plan with employer match after one year of employment, free access to on-campus fitness centers, and free admission to campus events. Spouses, domestic partners, and dependents are eligible for benefits coverage.

Community

The College of Idaho is located in Caldwell, a rural community with a vibrant downtown that is on the western edge of the Boise metropolitan area, providing opportunities for both small-town and city living. The diverse landscape of the area consists of river valleys, high desert, and mountains, which support a wide range of recreational activities. Boise and the surrounding area also provide opportunities to enjoy a rich and wide array of cultural experiences and artistic venues. More information can be found at <https://www.destinationcaldwell.com>, <https://visitboise.com>, and <https://visitidaho.org/>.