

Accounting Instructor

The College of Idaho invites applications for a fulltime Instructor in Accounting to start in the Fall 2024. We seek candidates who share the College's commitment to creating an equitable and inclusive academic community through their teaching and mentoring.

The College currently offers undergraduate majors in business administration, digital marketing, and accounting, including a 150-hour accounting major that prepares students for the CPA exam. The ideal candidate would contribute to the Business and Accounting Department's courses across various areas of accounting, including financial accounting, managerial accounting, and possibly other business or accounting areas.

The fulltime teaching load is distributed between Fall and Spring semesters and a 1-month January term with a 3-1-3 schedule. For information about the Business and Accounting Department's offerings and current faculty, visit the department's website. The department's student-centered approach emphasizes the intersection of theory and practice as it prepares graduates for productive careers and fulfilling lives.

Qualifications:

A CPA and a postgraduate degree in accounting or a closely related field is required. College-level teaching experience is preferred.

Candidates must be authorized to work in the United States as of the expected hire date and throughout the date of the contract without sponsorship from The College of Idaho

Application Instructions:

Review of candidates will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.

Applications should include:

- A letter of interest,
- Curriculum vitae
- Teaching philosophy in the context of a liberal arts education,
- A separate statement describing how your commitment to diversity and inclusion are demonstrated in your teaching,
- Transcripts (unofficial transcripts are accepted)

Please submit application materials to HR@collegeofidaho.edu with subject: Accounting Search. Contact details for three professional references and other additional information may be requested during the review process.

The College

With over 132 years of history, the College of Idaho is an inclusive community of exceptional learning that challenges the ambitious and forges pathways to success and purpose. The College strives to improve access to higher education for underrepresented individuals and groups. Its efforts have been recognized with high rankings for social mobility by the Wall Street Journal and U.S. News & World Report. Almost 15% of the students are international, representing 65 countries, and a third of the students are the first in their families to attend college.

The College of Idaho is proud to be an equal opportunity employer. We are committed to attracting, retaining, and maximizing the performance of a diverse and inclusive workforce. The College does not discriminate on the basis of sex, race, color, age, religion, disability, national and ethnic origin, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity, or any other basis protected by law.

The College offers competitive benefits including tuition waiver for dependents, health insurance, retirement plan with employer match after one year of employment, free access to on-campus fitness centers, and free admission to campus events. Spouses, domestic partners, and dependents are eligible for benefits coverage.

Community

The College of Idaho is located in Caldwell, a rural community with a vibrant downtown that is on the western edge of the Boise metropolitan area, providing opportunities for both small-town and city living. The diverse landscape of the area consists of river valleys, high desert, and mountains, which support a wide range of recreational activities. Boise and the surrounding area also provide opportunities to enjoy a rich and wide array of cultural experiences and artistic venues. More information can be found at <https://www.destinationcaldwell.com>, <https://visitboise.com>, and <https://visitidaho.org/>.