

OUTDOOR PROGRAM

PHOTO CREDIT: TOM PRICE '19

1 FALL BREAK IN BEND

Climbing in Smith Rock, Hiking to Crater Lake, and seeking out backcountry hot springs. Students explored Central Oregon's natural treasures from high peaks to desert canyons.

4 WATCH THE SUNSET FROM TABLE ROCK

Outdoor Program leaders led students on one of Boise's most popular hikes for a sunset introduction to the Boise-area's amazing trail system.

7 LEARN TO SKI AT BOGUS BASIN

Just an hour from campus, Bogus Basin offers ski slopes that suit any level of skier. The Outdoor Program partners with Bogus Basin to offer ski lessons to beginners so they can learn to enjoy the snowy Idaho mountains.

10 BECOME A WILDERNESS FIRST RESPONDER

Learn the medical skills necessary to handle an emergency when in the backcountry. Once a year, students can receive credit and earn their Wilderness First Responder certification with the Outdoor Program.

2 CLIMBING THE BLACK CLIFFS

Basalt cliffs overlooking the Boise river provide a beautiful setting for students to challenge themselves and support each other as they climb with the Outdoor Program.

5 BACKPACK TO BOX LAKE

Located outside scenic McCall, Idaho. Outdoor Program participants loaded everything they need to camp for a night in backpacks and hiked up beautiful Box Lake.

8 SPRING BREAK IN MOAB

Mountain biking, hiking, rock climbing, and visiting two of the US's most popular National Parks during a week exploring Utah's red rock deserts.

3 SNOWSHOES TO HOT SPRINGS

Students put on snowshoes and enjoy a beautiful hike in the snow through Ponderosa Pine forests to access welcoming hot springs, that keep them warm despite the snow.

6 SNOWSHOE IN THE BOISE FOOTHILLS

A short drive from campus is a winter wonderland, where students learn to stay comfortable in the chilly temperatures, walk with snowshoes, and enjoy the beautiful snowy landscape.

9 RAFTING ON THE PAYETTE RIVER

Join experienced guides on the rapid-filled Payette River.

TOP TEN EXPERIENCES