Personal Fitness Instructor

The Health and Human Performance Department at The College of Idaho invites applications for the position of part-time instructor to teach a personal fitness course Fall and Winter terms in our 2022/2023 academic year.

The successful candidate will instruct in the development of a personalized fitness program in which both health and skill-related fitness components are included. Stress management, nutrition, exercise precautions and equipment are also emphasized. Students will develop self-assessments and individualized fitness programs.

A Bachelor's degree in a related area of study is preferred. Certification as a personal trainer and prior college-level instruction a plus.

Compensation is $1,000 per course.

Candidates must be authorized to work in the United States as of the expected hire date and throughout the date of the contract without sponsorship from The College of Idaho.

Send a cover letter, a CV, and contact information for three references to HR@collegeofidaho.edu with the subject line "Personal Fitness Instructor." Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.
