

2020 Graduates

The day to celebrate a class of resilient, adaptable, and kind students has finally arrived. On Saturday, May 29th 2021, The College of Idaho will celebrate you at the Simplot Stadium at 10:00am MST.

If you are planning on participating in Commencement:

More information about regalia has been emailed to you by sales@idgrad.com (please check your Spam or Other folders). If you did not receive an email, please visit <https://directgrad.com/product/c-of-i-regalia/> to order your regalia. The regalia will be sent directly to your address you provide.

For questions about adornment, please read the adornment policy.

Tickets

For those who RSVP'd yes to attending, you will be sent a redemption code 8 tickets after May 12th. These tickets are for the 8 people you will invite to attend Commencement with you. You may only have 8 people maximum. Children under the age of 1 do not need a ticket to attend. These tickets will be assigned to you only.

Questions regarding tickets can be directed to events@collegeofidaho.edu

The ceremony will be livestreamed at this link (<https://goyot.es/commencement>)

Rehearsal

You will be required to attend graduation rehearsal on Friday, May 28th at 2:30pm. Rehearsal is mandatory for commencement participation.

During rehearsal, we will be doing a toast to both the graduating class of 2020 and 2021.

Ceremony Details

On Saturday, May 29th, you will report to the stadium between 8:45am dressed in your regalia. Graduates are experiencing or exhibiting any COVID-19 related symptoms, you will also asked to refrain from attending.

Rehearsal will end at 4:00pm.

Masks are encouraged to be worn by all attendees.

When you walk across the stage, you will only be receiving a diploma cover.

Expect Commencement to end by 12:00PM MST. There will be no place to gather on the field for pictures. Please make alternative arrangements with your guests to meet them offsite.

For those not participating in Commencement

Diploma covers will be mailed to those who rsvp'd that they would not attend to the mailing address given by July 5th. The Registrar's Office is not responsible for any damage cause during mailing and will not be able to replace the diploma cover if damaged in the mailing process. If you would prefer to pick up your diploma cover, please email registrar@collegeofidaho.edu
