

Verto Idaho

The Verto Idaho program provides the opportunity to spend your first semester of college studying abroad with other college students prior to beginning your studies at The College of Idaho in the Spring term. This one-of-a-kind curriculum blends international travel with college-level coursework, and is a great start to your College of Idaho degree.

Features

- ◆ Pick your study abroad program through Verto Education. Choices include Buenos Aires, Prague, Dublin, Seville, Florence, London, Hawaii and Costa Rica.
- ◆ Earn a minimum of 12 credits that will go towards your total credit requirement at The College of Idaho.
- ◆ Stay connected with C of I staff and faculty as you complete your study abroad semester.
- ◆ Experience a new country and develop an appreciation for other cultures.

Program Costs

Per semester costs range from $18,000 to $25,000, and include tuition, room + board, (not airfare). Financial aid is available through Verto and federal aid may be available through the FAFSA. Learn more about the cost at <https://vertoeducation.org/semesters/>

Safety

Verto takes every precautionary measure into place when designing their study abroad programs. More information about Verto's plan for your safety can be found at <https://vertoeducation.org/safety/>
