

Visiting Assistant Professor: COUNSELING/CLINICAL PSYCHOLOGY

The Department of Psychology invites applications for a Visiting Assistant Professor position in COUNSELING/CLINICAL PSYCHOLOGY, beginning August 2018. The position is for one year initially, but there is a possibility that it could continue for a second year or be advertised as a permanent position.

Preference will be given to candidates with a PhD in counseling or clinical psychology at the time of appointment. Primary responsibilities include teaching courses in abnormal psychology and counseling, as well as introductory psychology.

For information on the department's offerings and current faculty see <http://www.collegeofidaho.edu/psychology>. The shape of the psychology major follows the recommendations of the 2008 National Conference on Undergraduate Education in Psychology, including basic courses in four specific domains: biological, developmental, cognitive, and social.

Excellent teaching and mentoring of students are the highest priorities of the College. The successful candidate will be an active scholar interested in conducting research in collaboration with undergraduate students. Experience with the liberal arts is highly desired. Standard teaching load is 21 credits (3:1:3), which includes one course in our intensive January term. Typical class sizes range from 20-35.

Candidates must be authorized to work in the United States as of the expected hire date and throughout the date of the contract without sponsorship from the College.

Founded in 1891, The College of Idaho is the state's oldest private college. The C of I has a national reputation for academic excellence and for preparing successful graduates, including seven Rhodes Scholars, three governors, four NFL players and countless business leaders and innovators. The College is located on a beautiful campus in Caldwell, a community of 46,000 located in Idaho's vibrant Treasure Valley. Campus is just 30 minutes from downtown Boise, a thriving city with a multitude of dining and entertainment options including the Idaho Shakespeare Festival, the Boise Philharmonic Orchestra, professional sports and more. The area also offers world-class opportunities for hiking, camping, fishing, skiing, mountain biking, and whitewater rafting.
