

Visiting Assistant Professor, Religious Studies

The College of Idaho invites applications for a Visiting Assistant Professor position in Religious Studies, beginning Fall 2018. Candidates should hold a Ph.D. (or ABD) in Religious Studies with specialization in Religions of Asia. Candidates should be able to teach a range of introductory and upper-division courses across the Hindu, Buddhist, and Islamic traditions. Introduction to World Religions (2 sections) and Buddhism (1 section) are currently scheduled for the fall. Priority will be given to candidates with demonstrated commitment to teaching excellence and the liberal arts mission. The teaching load is 3-1-3.

Candidates must be authorized to work in the United States as of the expected hire date and throughout the date of the contract without sponsorship from The College of Idaho.

Review of applications will begin immediately. Send a letter of application, curriculum vitae, and three letters of recommendation to: HR@collegeofidaho.edu. Additional information may be requested of qualified candidates during the review process. Applications will be accepted until a suitable candidate is selected.

The College of Idaho values personal attention and collegiality, thus a familiarity with and understanding of a small and residential campus are highly desirable. A sincere interest in students, excellent communication skills, and support of the College's mission are also required.

Founded in 1891, The College of Idaho is the state's oldest private college. The C of I has a national reputation for academic excellence and for preparing successful graduates, including seven Rhodes Scholars, three governors, four NFL players and countless business leaders and innovators. The College is located on a beautiful campus in Caldwell, a community of 50,000 located in Idaho's vibrant Treasure Valley. Campus is just 30 minutes from downtown Boise, a thriving city with a multitude of dining and entertainment options including the Idaho Shakespeare Festival, the Boise Philharmonic Orchestra, professional sports and more. The area also offers world-class opportunities for hiking, camping, fishing, skiing, mountain biking and whitewater rafting.
